

Randy Parker

News Director/Host of All Things Considered

About Randy:

Randy Parker is the news director and hosts All Things Considered each weekday on WITF 89.5 & 93.3.

Before joining WITF in 2022, Randy led newsrooms across central Pennsylvania for more than 30 years. He started his journalism career at the York Daily Record, where he went on to become Executive Editor and Central Pennsylvania Regional Editor for Gannett.

Randy graduated from Dallastown Area High School in York County and Temple University in Philadelphia.

Randy can speak to your organization about:

Why Do They Keep Breaking the News?: With his experience leading newsrooms in central Pennsylvania, Randy sheds light on why the news sources we feel comfortable with keep changing.

What Is the Truth?: Randy discusses the conundrum of finding reliable sources in a world of infinite sources.

